

Grant Thornton as an employer

Benefits and offers at a glance

Grant Thornton Switzerland/Liechtenstein is a well-known auditing and consulting company. Find out more about our company and our terms of employment.

Short profile Grant Thornton Switzerland/Liechtenstein

Our core competencies are in the areas of audit, tax, advisory and outsourcing. Under the leadership of CEO Erich Bucher and 21 other partners, Grant Thornton

Switzerland/Liechtenstein employs around 220 people with offices in Switzerland in Zurich, Geneva and Buchs as well as in Liechtenstein in Schaan. Thanks to our regional integration, we have strong local roots, yet being part of the Grant Thornton international network, we are also at the same time globally connected. As a growing company, Grant Thornton is continuously looking to recruit motivated, qualified experts and young talents.

People and culture

- Work independently in motivated and dynamic teams
- An agile environment that is conducive to your individual advancement
- An opportunity to take an active role in the team and to help shape changes/optimisations
- Assuming responsibility
- Wide range of tasks

Working together

- Generous anniversary benefits (choice between bonus or additional days of holiday)
- Work-life balance (40-hour week)
- Flexible working arrangements with part-time options (variable, individual models for the respective teams)
- Overtime compensation or payment up to manager level /an additional week's holiday for managers
- Possibility to buy additional days of holiday
- Flexible office (working from any location)

Wages and social security

- Competitive salary
- Performance-related bonus
- Modern pension fund solution. Supplementary plan and selectable plans from manager level or after 5 years of service
- Extra-mandatory benefits for maternity and paternity leave
- Additional accident insurance (private worldwide)

Diplomas and certificates

- Generous support in acquiring professionally relevant diplomas, certificates and degrees
- Paid study days
- Time off for exam preparation

Other benefits

- Regular employee events
- Very centrally located, attractive and modern workplaces
- Modern and secure IT infrastructure
- Mobile phone and half-fare travelcard by arrangement
- Drinks, coffee and fruits are provided free of charge
- Fleet discount at various car dealerships

Are you looking for a position that carries responsibility and offers an exciting challenge and new individual career prospects? Then send your application to Grant Thornton Switzerland/Liechtenstein. We look forward to hearing from you and receiving your application!

Contact

Michaela Kaufmann-Walch

Grant Thornton Switzerland/Liechtenstein
Head Human Resources

D +423 237 42 32

T +423 237 42 42

E michaela.kaufmann-walch@li.gt.com