

Louis Flichy
Manager – Tax

Role

Louis Flichy is a Manager in the Tax department at Grant Thornton Switzerland/Liechtenstein in Geneva.

Professional experience

Louis Flichy advises private clients, wealthy families, family offices and international groups on Swiss and international tax matters, wealth structuring, international mobility and social security matters.

He has nearly ten years of experience in tax advisory and advising international clients. His work includes cross-border structuring, corporate and holding company restructurings, succession planning, real estate and financial investments, and the negotiation of tax rulings.

Before joining Grant Thornton, Louis Flichy headed the Tax & Advisory activities of a Geneva-based family office, where he advised wealthy families and coordinated complex engagements with external advisers, notaries and tax authorities. He previously worked at two Big Four firms in Geneva and Lausanne, primarily in the field of international mobility. His professional background also includes experience abroad, where he managed an internal project for a Big Four firm.

Professional qualifications and memberships

Louis Flichy holds a Master in Management with a specialisation in audit and accounting.

Languages

In addition to his native French, Louis Flichy speaks English at a professional level and also has knowledge of Spanish.
