

Legal & Trust Services

Personal advice that proves you right.

Globally networked with strong local roots

Grant Thornton Switzerland/Liechtenstein is a renowned audit and advisory firm with a well-established tax department and extensive experience in outsourcing. With branches in Zurich, Schaan, Geneva and Buchs (SG), we have strong local roots and, as a member of Grant Thornton's international network, are linked at global level. Offering wide-ranging services, we help dynamic organisations unlock their growth potential. The scale of our operations as well as our concessions and licences permit us to meet your demands in both a national and international context. At the same time, we are small and agile enough to respond to your needs in a flexible way. With a keen sense for change combined with practice-oriented expertise and a sound grasp of your particular business and the market, we are an ideal partner in these risky and fast-moving times.

A reliable partner – for all manner of legal issues

As the business and economic environment becomes more complex, so do the relevant legal and statutory requirements. Anyone tasked with setting up a new business, drafting employment contracts, determining business terms and conditions or purchasing real estate faces a multitude of directives, regulations and laws that all need to be complied with, examined and implemented. In Grant Thornton Switzerland/Liechtenstein you have a reliable and qualified partner at your side. Our experienced legal practitioners and lawyers will guide you through all matters relating to commercial law and find a solution. With offices in Zurich, Switzerland's business metropolis, and in Buchs, the experts of our Legal Services team are at hand with goal-oriented and individualised legal support. A complete range for your rights.
